

HE WANTED A WIFE AND GOT ONE

Bernarth Friedman, of Pawnee, Supplies a Bargain Counter Romance

The Milwaukee Sentinel of Monday publishes the following romance:

Prince Henry, who said that in all his travels in the United States he saw in no other city as many pretty women as in Milwaukee, may be responsible for it, but be that as it may, the fame of this town has gone broadcast as a matrimonial market, provided the seeker of a wife is what he ought to be and has the "goods."

About six weeks ago Bernarth Friedman, of Pawnee, Okla., came to Milwaukee with the expressed determination to take back with him a wife. He came here for that purpose, and the fact that he had but one acquaintance in the city did not dismay him in the least.

To show how well he succeeded, Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock he was married to Mrs. Carrie Licherman by Rabbi Caro, at the rabbi's residence. It was not a "chance" affair. The groom was the bride to the exclusion of everything else for more than five weeks, and both were firmly convinced that they were for each other before they determined to wed.

Here this story might properly take another tack and resolve itself into a recital of how a poor young saleswoman stepped from behind a shirt-waist counter in a big dry goods store to be mistress of a banker's home, for such is the case. The groom is the head of the Bank of Pawnee and an extensive land and stock owner. He is about 45 years old.

Several days after his arrival he walked into Gimbel Bros.' store and spent upwards of an hour inspecting its different departments, principally those presided over by young women. As he sauntered back to the entrance to the store he was for the second time asked by a young woman if she could wait upon him. The story of what happened is best told by the young woman, who gave it thus:

"Yes, I want something; I want a wife."

Accepting this in the spirit of badinage in which she supposed it was offered, she replied: "We haven't a wife department, but there are plenty you might select from if you happened to please them."

"Mr. Friedman then inquired if there were any Jewesses employed in the store, and being told there were he was presented upon his second visit to the store to Mrs. Licherman by the young woman whom he had first addressed.

"That noon he took her out to lunch and accompanied her home in the evening. We girls in the store from that on were on tiptoe to know how the affair was progressing, but Mrs. Licherman told us little beyond the fact that he was still in the city. Two weeks ago she resigned her position and we saw nothing of her until Saturday, when she came into the store and told us that she was to be married Sunday afternoon and that her prospective husband was the 'dearest man in the world.' She also bade all her clerk fellows goodbye."

Mrs. Licherman is described as a handsome brunette about 30 years old, who has been in the employ of Gimbel Bros. less than a year. She was a Miss Kahn and resided with her parents at 824 Central avenue. She married in Chicago several years ago, three months after which her husband was drowned in Lake Michigan while out in a rowboat. Mr. and Mrs. Friedman left on an early train for Chicago and will proceed to his home at Pawnee, Okla., in a few days.

(By Associated Press.)
Springfield, Ill., Sept. 3.—In response to the call of Daniel L. Cruick, president of the Referendum League of Illinois, delegates are assembling in Springfield for a three days' conference. The purpose of the conference is to plan a campaign for the initiative and referendum in the state and for the further purpose of filing what is known as the "state petition". It is claimed that this petition will have over 350,000 names on it. The league aims to secure a majority rule for counties and cities, an amendment to the state constitution enabling the people to control legislation, and the election of United States senators by the direct vote of the people.

No external application is equal to this liniment for stiff and swollen joints, contracted muscles, stiff neck, sprains and rheumatic and muscular pains. It has also cured numerous cases of partial paralysis. It is for sale by Eagle Drug Store.

ANOTHER COLLISION.

Electric Car Demolished by a Suburban Train.

San Francisco, Cal., Sept. 4.—A Southern Pacific Suburban train bound for this city, collided with a San Mateo electric car at an early hour this morning. The electric car was completely demolished and all the passengers more or less injured. Six of the more seriously injured were removed to St. Luke's hospital. It is not believed any of the passengers was fatally hurt. Engineer Coughlin was slightly injured.

HIS SILVER JUBILEE.

(By Associated Press.)
Eikhar, Ind., Sept. 3.—More than 100 prominent priests and prelates of the Roman Catholic church gathered here today and helped to make memorable the celebration of the silver jubilee of the Rev. Henry A. Boeckle-mann, priest of St. Vincent's Catholic church. At nine o'clock this morning there was a celebration of high mass by Bishop Alender, of the Ft. Wayne diocese. Afterward the visiting clergy and other guests were entertained at a big dinner in the parochial school.

Father Boeckle-mann was born in Hanover, Germany, in 1851, but was brought to Logansport, Ind., by his parents in 1853. At the age of 24 he was graduated from the Christian Brothers' college in St. Louis, and from St. Vitae's Seminary at Bourbonnais, Ill., in 1877. He was ordained on August 13, 1877, and assigned to St. John's church, Goshen, Ind., remaining there until transferred to the pastorate of St. Vincent's church in this city in 1891.

TO STUDY HISTORY.

(By Associated Press.)
Huntsville, Ala., Sept. 3.—A meeting was held here today for the formation of an historical society for the study and preservation of the history and antiquities of the Tennessee Valley. The meeting, which was presided over by Judge Richard W. Walker, was well attended. Following the enrollment of members there were several interesting papers on the Landersdale county mounds and the early history of the Tennessee Valley settlements.

ANGLICAN GENERAL WOOD.

Montreal, Que., Sept. 3.—The General Synod of the Church of England in Canada began its quadrennial session in Montreal today and will continue for the next week or ten days. Archbishop Bond, of Montreal, presides in place of Archbishop Machray, of Rupert's land, Primate of all Canada, who is unable to be present on account of illness. There is a full attendance of clerical and lay delegates, together with many other visitors interested in the proceedings of the synod.

The present meeting of the synod will be called upon to transact the most important business that has ever come before it. Efforts will be made to consolidate still further the church in Canada, and the delegates will be asked to formulate a canon relating to divorce and remarriage. There will be a thorough review of the missionary work of the church, and some definite plan will doubtless be devised for concentrating the work of the church in both the home and foreign mission fields.

A Communication.

Mr. Editor—All me to speak a few words in favor of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I suffered for three years with the bronchitis and could not sleep at nights. I tried several doctors and various patent medicines, but could get nothing to give me any relief until my wife got a bottle of this valuable medicine, which has completely relieved me.—W. S. Brockman, Bagnell, Mo. This remedy is for sale by Eagle Drug Store.

LIVELY POLITICS.

IN PENNSYLVANIA.
(By Associated Press.)
Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 3.—Republican political affairs in the Keystone state reached the boiling point today when both factions of the party held meetings in this city. The Union Republicans, or anti-Quayites, assembled in state convention in Musical Fund hall this morning and were called to order by Chairman Frank M. Ritter. The purpose of the convention is to name candidates for governor, lieutenant governor and secretary of internal affairs. There is talk of an effort to induce the convention to endorse Judge Pennypacker, the gubernatorial candidate of the regular Republicans, and there is also reported a sentiment among the delegates favoring the endorsement of ex-Governor Pattison, the Democratic candidate. Indications, however, point to the nomination of independent candidates for the three offices to be filled.

Additional interest is given the situation by the presence in the city of the state committeemen of the regular Republicans, who assembled in accordance with the recent call of Senator Quay. Speculation is rife as to whether they are here in an endeavor to make a deal with the union convention or to balk the plans of the latter in putting up an independent state ticket.

Nothing Like Oil.

"In dealing with man, remember that a spoonful of oil will go farther than a gallon of vinegar." The same may be said of children. There is nothing so good for children as the old fashioned castor oil. However much they may abhor it, it is their best medicine for disorders of the bowels. In the more severe cases of Diarrhoea and dysentery, however, Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy should be given after the oil operates, and a quick cure is sure to follow. For sale by Eagle Drug Store.

The evolutions of light artillery batteries are among the most enterprising of any branch of the army. Buckskin Bill's veteran gunners will give an exhibition here Sept. 10 that would make even Dewey proud of them.
